

ESTATE PLANNING, WILLS, TRUSTS & PROBATE

Helping clients accomplish sound financial arrangements through a carefully drafted estate plan is the goal of our Texas estate planning lawyers. Effective estate planning requires careful attention to the needs and long-term goals of each client.

We also offer our in-depth understanding of the tax consequences of various financial transactions and exhaustive knowledge of the probate process. Whether the client requires a simple will or a complex plan to gradually distribute assets, our estate planning lawyers can help.

About Our Services

We provide a full range of legal services surrounding estate planning, including:

- Federal and state death tax planning
- Wealth transfer planning, including for high net worth families
- Gift and joint ownership planning
- Business transition planning
- Asset protection and estate tax reduction
- Living trusts, wills, durable powers of attorney
- Insurance trusts
- Trusts for minors and persons with special needs
- Charitable gift planning and charitable trusts
- Marital property agreements (Pre-nuptial and marital agreements)

Estate Administration for Texas

We also have extensive experience in advising individual fiduciaries as well as trust departments of national and state banks. We advise these groups on ensuring compliance with federal and state laws and regulations governing the administration of estates and trusts.

Our estate planning and probate lawyers provide a full range of estate administration services to clients, including:

- Preparing court documents required for the probate of the will and the appointment of personal representatives
- Preparing inventories of estate assets and liabilities, as well as notices and other related documents required by the court
