News

Naman Howell is proud to announce that Waco attorney Kristen Mynar has been recognized by Super Lawyers as one of the 2021 Texas Rising Stars.

Every year the Texas Rising Star list, published by Thomson Reuters, recognizes the top young lawyers in the state based on nominations from attorneys across Texas and an extensive review process. The selections are based off multiphase process involving peer nominations and reviews, and independent research.

The list, which includes over 60 practice areas, was finalized in September of 2020.

This year, Kristen was identified in the Estate Planning & Probate section and is one of only 80 attorneys in the state of Texas to be recognized in this practice area.
