Naman Howell Supports 2018 Baylor Law Top Gun Competition

1 \ JUNE \ 2018

News

Naman Howell is proud to once again be the underwriter for the annual Baylor Law Top Gun National Mock Trial Competition starting Friday, June 1st. Law students from the sixteen top trial advocacy schools across the nation will be coming to participate in this innovative mock trial tournament. The tournament is designed to challenge even the most seasoned and skillful mock trial competitors with its uniquely distinct approach. Not only does the competition help prepare future lawyers to excel in their careers, but the overall winner will also walk away with $10,000 in prize money.
